

When Enfp travels to Jeju Island and goes to a cafe, please write down how you will post on Instagram

Setting off on a whimsical journey to Jeju Island as an ENFP! Just wandered into this charming café, and I'm already imagining how I'd share this magical moment on Instagram.

Picture this: The door swings open, and the aroma of freshly brewed coffee envelops me, a sensory welcome to the wonders awaiting. ☕✨

The café itself feels straight out of a fairy tale, with a panoramic view of Jeju's breathtaking landscapes through the window. The sea and sky blend into a masterpiece, leaving me utterly captivated. 🌊🎨

Sipping on local coffee, each cup tells a story of Jeju, and the brunch with fresh island fruits is a culinary delight. 🥥🥑
